LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Rhonda Raffi Meegan, President

Finally! We are blessed to have an in-person conference where we will be honoring the old Elmhurst Academy and celebrating the new Sacred Heart School, St. Philomena. It will be so exciting to see our old friends again, meet new friends, and celebrate together in prayer and conference festivities.

Let's celebrate Courage and Confidence! To me, having the courage to stand strong in faith, and having the confidence in knowing Our Lord will always be with us as He promised is a great blessing! Philippine's words resonating courage and confidence give us encouragement during our challenges. "Strength of character is certainly needed to face life in the world, and to stand by right principles especially in the age we live.... His wisdom governs me, His power defends me, His grace sanctifies me, His mercy encompasses me, His joy sustains me and all will go well with me."

Coeurs en fête! We have a few surprises for you... Think of all those fun Sacred Heart French traditions that bring a smile to your face as you recall them.. We will share some of those, and also give you a taste of Rhode Island!

Molly Dare! We are excited to show her exclusive video presentation . Molly is a media executive, and Stuart alumna. Maybe you have heard her podcasts "On Air With Molly Dare" or have heard of her entrepreneurial talents founding HillenBrand Media, or have followed her on Twitter and Instagram. Come join us to hear Molly Dare share!

Thankful! We will all pray together! Our Cor Unum Mass celebration will be at Church of St. Gregory the Great at Portsmouth Abbey next door to St. Philomena School. It will truly be a memorable service in this 100 year old monastery. They are the English Benedictine Congregation who were known as the black monks in old terms. Together they "work to grow in contemplation and pray to remain in contemplation." We are grateful to them for allowing us to celebrate our contemplative tradition; Cor Unum Mass.

Blessed! During this biennium, we were very blessed to have received a bequest from the estate of Rosemary O'Neill (Sheridan Road and Maryville University). Part of this gift was used to produce a special historical Keynote Legacy Video Presentation entitled "Courage and Confidence." In the spirit of the Legacy Project, this work will honor and preserve some of the history and traditions of Sacred Heart. This video was produced and will be presented by AASH Past President, and now AMASC President Rosalie Bellenca Posselius.

Grateful! Thank you St. Philomena School! Please come and join us to meet them and thank them for hosting our 44th conference.

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go."
Joshua 1:9

With love from the Heart! ♥

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Laurie Strickland
(ASH St. Charles, 1976)
at the Glass Work Bench
in St. Charles

Courage and Confidence; how do we achieve this? Having recently entered a new chapter in my life, I found myself needing a boost in both courage and confidence. With the start of a new year, I decided to focus on learning things more by choice and not necessity. In January, I learned how to make glass fused pendant jewelry at a shop on historic Main Street in St. Charles, very close to where St. Philippine arrived on the riverfront in 1818. With the help of my sons, I planted a field of wildflowers that are native to Missouri (and yes, the seeds need to be planted in the winter!) In February, I toured the facility where Bissinger's chocolates are made by hand in St. Louis. On my list for March is a painting party and an introduction to knitting class. Dining in restaurants with authentic cuisine from other countries is also part of my plan. It takes courage to try new things and to go to new places, but the reward is often confidence. I'm looking forward to the National Conference in May which will bring new people and places into my life and am encouraging you to attend. As children of the Sacred Heart, we are called to be life-long learners. I am grateful for the lessons taught to me by the RSCJ and lay teachers who encouraged me to keep learning as I embrace the pursuit of courage and confidence.

Laurie

Quentin Merny and Maria Schöner*

On October 29 and 30, in Naples, Italy, the World Association of Alumnae and Alumni of the Sacred Heart — better known as AMASC — held its latest General Assembly. Part of the World Congress, which takes place every four years, the General Assembly officially concludes the term of the current board of directors and elects a new board for the subsequent mandate.

Because of the ongoing COVID pandemic, the 2022 AMASC World Congress was scaled back significantly. Typically attended by hundreds of Sacred Heart alumnae/i from around the world, last year's Congress, unfortunately, was open only to the presidents of the national associations, AMASC members or their delegates, and the candidates for the next board of directors.

Paola del Prete, president of AMASC for the 2018-2022 mandate, and her team organized a memorable program of events for the small group of attendees. The business portion of the Congress was conducted at the former Sacred Heart school in Naples, where a Mass, preceded by the traditional parade of flags representing the various national associations, also was celebrated. Participants enjoyed a tour of the city's magnificent Royal Palace and Teatro San Carlo opera house, as well as a reception and dinner at the Circolo Nazionale dell'Unione, a club founded in the mid-19th century that has hosted numerous heads of state and royalty over the years.

The members of the new AMASC executive board all hail from the United States, and they look forward to engaging and making meaningful connections with Sacred Heart alumnae/i the world over during their mandate, as well as organizing a robust World Congress in 2026.

National Conference Speakers

Nancy Kehoe, RSCJ

Nancy C. Kehoe, RSCJ, PhD. is an Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychology in the Department of Psychiatry at Harvard Medical School. For 23 years she had a private psychotherapy practice. Her area of expertise is religion and spirituality in the clinical context. For thirty-four years, using a model she created, she led groups on spiritual beliefs and values for adults with psychiatric disabilities, a pioneer in the field. She currently facilitates groups with the first and second year Harvard Medical students, is a team member for the Busy Persons' Retreats offered in Network Schools, and serves as a Trustee on the boards of three Network schools

She is the author of "Wrestling with Our Inner Angels: Faith, Mental Illness and the Journey to Wholeness" and has published six You Tubes, "Conversations on religion and mental illness." She has presented at regional, national, and international conferences and published on the subject of religion, psychotherapy and mental illness. Additional information can be found on her web site at: www.expandingconnections.com

Ellen Snee

Dr. Ellen Snee has worked at the forefront of women's leadership development for more than 25 years. Ellen received her EdD in Human Development and Psychology from Harvard University where her research was on women in roles of authority. As an entrepreneur, she ran Fine Line Consulting, providing leadership programs, consulting and coaching to Fortune 500 companies, professional firms, nonprofits, and startups for 15 years. And before all that she was an RSCJ for 18 years.

From 2009-2015 Ellen was VP Global Leadership Development at a global software company and in 2021 she published Lead: How Women in Charge. Claim their Authority.

A member of the International Women's Forum, an invitation-only organization of global women leaders, she also serves as an advisor to She Can and Rise Up, organizations that empower young women in Africa and Asia to become leaders. She also mentors women professionals in Ukraine.

In 2022 she was a Harvard Fellow in the Advanced Leadership Initiative where her focus was on advancing and amplifying the work of women on climate change. She currently is an executive coach to women in senior academic and corporate roles in Sustainability and Climate.

M. Margaret McDonnell, RSCJ

Sister Peggy McDonnell entered the Society of the Sacred Heart in 1961 and was professed in 1969. She is a Nurse Practitioner in Community Health and a bioethicist. She provided patient care for students both at Newton Academy and Newton College of the Sacred Heart in the 1970's and later worked in Boston's neighborhood health centers including the Harvard Community Health Plan and neighborhood health centers in the north end and Chelsea. After establishing ethics committees in a multi-hospital system in the 1980's, she established an Illinois Not for Profit in Community Health, The Center for Ethics and Advocacy in Healthcare. She served on the board of the Indiana Nurses Association, on the Midwest Migrant Health Council and the Society for Bioethics Consultation. She obtained an MA in Religion from Andover Newton Theological School and later a Th. M in Ethics from Harvard Divinity. She has received numerous awards for service in healthcare and human rights, and an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from St. Francis University, in Loretto, PA. She has had multiple speaking engagements, many consulting engagements, published numerous articles, and most recently has authored The Golden Thread: Making Healthcare Decisions in Neighborhoods.

Courage and Confidence: A Legacy Video

A gifted documentarian, Roselie Bellanca Posselius (Grosse Pointe 1973/ Bloomfield 1977) is the creative spirit and driving force behind the AASH Legacy Project, an effort to preserve an oral history of AASH and our Sacred Heart education, culture and traditions.

Using funds from a bequest from the estate of Rosemary O'Neil (Sheridan Road 1942/Maryville University 1946), a project was created to continue the spirit of the Legacy Project by commissioning a video the 44th AASH for the conference in Rhode Island. Entitled "Courage and Confidence," this video will feature interviews with Elmhurst alumnae, Current St. Philomena School of the Sacred Heart Head of School Brian Cordeiro as well as interviews and video of the Shrine to St. Philomena in Muano, Italy. Barbara Henry (Newton College) winner of this year's special Courage and Confidence Award shares her experiences as a historic educator, and international stories of courage and confidence from members of AMASC.

With an introduction by Roselie Bellanca Posselius the premiere showing of this video following the Cor Unum Luncheon will be one of the highlights of this year's AASH National Conference.

Molly Dare Hillenbrand - Stuart Country Day 1996

Known for her powerhouse PR skills, Molly founded hillenBRAND Media in 2017, promoting entrepreneurs, business owners and media personalities through filmed social media segments, on-camera interviews in her Spotlight Series, and podcast episodes of On Air with Molly Dare.

Molly is also known for her work both in front of, and behind, the camera. She has hosted and produced multiple nationwide segments for the 'Eye On' channel, providing viewers with insight and happenings in their city, while simultaneously giving brands exposure to viewers across the country.

Molly's incredible work ethic has kept her at the top of her field year after year, most recently being featured on the cover of Formidable Woman Magazine and a sought after guest on numerous podcasts.

Undoubtedly, Molly's most important role in life (and biggest passion!) is being a single mom to her two talented and beautiful daughters, Carolyn and Sophie, and her three super cute and snuggly dogs. You can follow along with Molly's life, business and podcast @mollydare, @onairwithmollydare and @hillenbrandmedia on Instagram. Molly has prepared a special video presentation about "Courage and Confidence."

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Cor Unum Mass at the Church of St. Gregory the Great at Portsmouth Abbey

Built in 1960 and designed by Pietro Belluschi, the Portsmouth Abbey Church was inspired by the sixth-century church of San Vitale in Ravenna, Italy that was built during the papacy of Gregory the Great, the patron saint of Portsmouth.

Simplistic yet at the same time ornate, the church features fieldstone walls, redwood, and stained glass. The most stunning singular piece of artwork is the wire sculpture "The Trinity," that hangs above the altar as if suspended in mid-air. It was designed by Richard Lippold whose work is on permanent display at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

Truly a unique and inspiring place of prayer and praise, the Church of St. Gregory the Great at Portsmouth Abbey is the site of the Cor Unum Mass for the AASH 44th National Conference. Together, we will celebrate the Mass, remember those who are no longer with us, give thanks for the gifts bestowed upon us and honor the alums who are receiving awards for Cor Unum, Woman of Conscience, Courage and Confidence and MaryLiz de Vito Generosity and Service. The Mass will be followed by the Cor Unum Luncheon at St. Philomena's School of the Sacred Heart featuring the premiere presentation of the Rosemary O'Neil Legacy Video.

Alice J. Burns Vin d'Honneur

The closing event for our 44th National Conference will be the Alice J. Burns Vin d'Honneur Celebration. Alice, who passed away in 2019 was the AASH President from 2013-2015. We feel blessed that Julie Burns Doll sent a donation to AASH from Alice's estate to be used for something special for the 44th AASH National Conference. We couldn't think of anything more special than having Alice celebrate conference in the east with a wine and French goûter vin d'honneur. This event celebrates the bright future of Sacred Heart education and honors its treasured and historic past.

Conference Add-on Events

Très Bien Dinner

Join us on Friday evening, May 19 for an intimate dinner at 22 Bowen's on the Newport waterfront. Limited to 20 guests, this dinner is a fundraising event to cover the cost of the RSCJ attending the 44th AASH National Conference.

22 Bowen's is an elegant harborside tavern evoking Newport charm and sophistication. The three-course meal will feature New England classics, with a French accent, accompanied by a selection of fine wines and drinks. We have reserved a semi-private area with views of the water on the restaurant's second floor. The evening includes a special presentation and an unforgettable evening of fine food, French wine and camaraderie. The cost for this very special Sacred Heart fundraising event is $500.

(Please note: the second floor is not handicapped accessible.)

Shelagh O'Dwyer Soirée

Celebrating the legacy of Convent of the Sacred Heart Elmhurst, we will gather at Glen Manor, the former residence of boarding students. This elegant venue will be the site of the Shelagh O'Dwyer Soirée on Thursday, May 18. Due to cost and limited capacity, this is an add-on Conference event for an additional fee of $175 per person to attend. The evening will include cocktails and hor d'oeuvres that feature the finest delicacies from Rhode Island. Registration is available on the Conference registration page. Join us as we honor the past at this historic site.

SACRED HEART IN RHODE ISLAND

by Laurie Strickland, St. Charles 1976

In Amiens, France, 1820, two holy women, both named Madeleine, crossed paths. One is the Mother Superior of the religious order she founded just twenty years earlier, the other, a potential novice, discerning her future. As students of the Sacred Heart, we all recognize that the Mother Superior is our dear St. Madeleine Sophie Barat. The other Madeleine is Vénérable Marie Madeleine d'Houët. The common thread between these two holy women is Father Joseph Varin, SJ.

Father Varin met Marie Madeleine in 1815 and tried to convince her that she was called to join Madeleine Sophie Barat's order. He introduced the two and in 1820, Marie Madeleine spent time in the novitiate of the Religious of the Sacred Heart in Amiens, France under the direction of Mother Barat. But Marie Madeleine felt strongly that she should begin her own order and later that year, she founded the Sisters Faithful Companions of Jesus.

Fast forward 200 years and the two Madeleines who both often used the phrase "courage and confidence," are again connected. In March 2021, following a multi-year effort, St. Philomena School in Portsmouth, RI, founded in 1953 by the Sisters Faithful Companions of Jesus, became the 25th school in the Network of Sacred Heart Schools.

St. Philomena School is not the first Sacred Heart school to be located in Portsmouth. Convent of the Sacred Heart Elmhurst was founded in 1872 in Providence, RI and educated girls from elementary through high school. In 1961, the buildings were in need of extensive repair and it was decided that the school would relocate. The property known as Glen Farm was purchased by the Society of the Sacred Heart and the school moved to Portsmouth. The Manor House became the dormitory for boarding students. At this location, Convent of the Sacred Heart Elmhurst provided education for students in First grade through high school and in 1963, there were twenty three RSCJ on campus. In 1972, the beloved school closed and for forty nine years, ended Sacred Heart education in Rhode Island.

The beautiful, twenty six acre waterfront campus of St. Philomena School of the Sacred Heart, is the site of the 44th AASH National Conference, May 18-20, 2023. To pay homage to the legacy of Elmhurst, the Shelagh O'Dwyer Soirée will be held at Glen Manor, a beautiful wedding and special event venue and the former dormitory for the school. Make plans to join us in Rhode Island as we celebrate the rich tradition of Sacred Heart education in this region.

Woman of Conscience Award 2023

By Rhonda Meegan, Newton Country Day 71, Newton College 75

A religious of the Sacred Heart since 1971, M. Margaret McDonnell, RSCJ, founded The Center for Ethics and Advocacy in Illinois in 1995. A Certified Nurse Practitioner in Community Health, she worked in Boston's neighborhood health centers, providing adult patient care, including providing care at Newton CDS and Newton College. She obtained an MA in Religion at Newton Theological School, and later a Master's degree in Theology in Ethics at Harvard Divinity School with a concentration in Faith and Ethics.

After years in Corporate Health Care her journey led her to founding The Center for Ethics and Advocacy in Healthcare, a 501c3 in a North Chicago suburb. This, her main life's work, focused on health care ethics education at the table of life: in the neighborhood, the home, wherever families struggle with "health-decision" issues.

In addition, Sister McDonnell developed an internship program in community health care ethics and advocacy. She has been given multiple awards for service in health care, and human rights, and an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, St. Francis University, in PA. She's held multiple speaking engagements, many consulting engagements, written many publications, and is the author of The Golden Thread.

Sister McDonnell's gifts of self in the service of others has had an outstanding impact on the lives of many.

AASH Courage and Confidence Award 2023

Barbara Gould Henry — Newton College

Two years in teaching and having just arrived in New Orleans, Newton College alumna Barbara Gould Henry was told that "if I returned tomorrow, I would meet my new student." "Then I knew - appalled, but determined, I was returning. And on that second day, that magical moment occurred that has forever remained as indelible as it was striking in its happening.. As I - and only I - went to greet her and then introduce myself to her, her head slightly tilted downward, offered a touching, gentle smile and then her big, gorgeous brown eyes rose to meet mine - and there and then - it was love at first sight." "As I took her hand in mine, from the hand of the Federal Marshal, we made our way - then - and forever through the year - alone and together for our singular mission and loving, personal academic adventure."

On November 14, 1960, Barbara had the courage and the confidence to choose a teaching mission that "shamed our nation and shocked the world." "It was the arrival of a delicate appearing little black girl making her way with a quiet dignity and exceptional courage in the company of United States Federal Marshals to enter the formerly all-white public school system." The little girl was Ruby Bridges.

Barbara bravely faced wild protests daily outside the school, protected by Federal Marshals as she went in to teach Ruby. Barbara was shunned by other teachers, parents and students. Her selfless courage brought forth a Civil Rights victory ending racially segregated public schools in the US.

Barbara has received numerous awards, and invitations to the White House from Bill Clinton, and Barack Obama. In 1998, Disney made the movie Ruby Bridges which was based on this true story of Barbara and Ruby. Recently, an award was set up to honor her, and it acknowledges courageous teachers, the Barbara Henry Teaching Award. (barbarahenryaward.org) At its inauguration, Barbara stated "I like to think of Courage as that Gateway quality of character, the key to allowing for an array of empowering actions to follow. Ruby and I—with Courage to go forth—took those first steps for Right and Duty that allowed for endless blessings to follow."

Deborah Newhouse Dunham

Grand Coteau 1962 /

Duchesne Houston 1970

Inspired by the example and encouragement of the Religious of the Sacred Heart, who taught her, Deborah has sought to incorporate the principles of love of God, social awareness, support for others and giving back to the community into both her personal and professional lives.

As a geriatric social worker, she enhanced the lives of numerous elderly residents by ensuring that they received the necessary care to remain in their homes for as long as possible or that transitions were made with consideration and compassion, earning the gratitude of the individuals and families whom she counseled. This inspired her to become involved with other issues facing the elderly. She served on the Board of Directors of the National Capital Area Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association where she volunteered on the Help Line. She was also a Board Member and officer of the international non-profit organization Eden Alternative, which is dedicated to transforming care environments to create person-centered care for elders.

Ever grateful for the kindness, patience, and personal interest that the Sacred Heart Sisters of her youth extended to her, the Sacred Heart family always has held a special place in Deborah's life. She was humbled to receive the inaugural Philippine Duchesne Award from her alma mater, Duchesne Academy of the Sacred Heart in Houston, and honored to be a Trustee there. Since 2015, she has been a member of the National Board of AASH, serving as Southern Regional Director and currently as AASH Ambassador, visiting chapters throughout the U.S. and Canada to connect and inform Sacred Heart alums. Through her get-togethers with the retired RSCJ, she became aware of the challenges facing older religious. As a result, in 2019 she joined the board of SOAR! (Support Our Aging Religious) where she is Vice Chair and chaired the SOAR! 2022 Gala in Washington, DC. SOAR! distributes over $1.5 million annually in grants to assist religious age in place with dignity.

Confirming the adage "you never forget how to ride a bicycle," to celebrate the 200th Anniversary of St. Philippine Duchesne's arrival in St. Charles, Missouri, Deborah bicycled solo the 320 miles along the Katy Trail following St. Philippine's footsteps (but without wearing the habit) from St. Charles to Sugar Creek, Kansas. With her sister-in-law Janis as her invaluable Sherpa, she raised $24 thousand for the Old St. Ferdinand Shrine.

COR UNUM RECIPIENTS

Mary Forsyth
El Cajon 1963/Lone
Mountain 1967

Mary is an alumna of Convent of the Sacred Heart, El Cajon and San Francisco College for Women. She began her teaching career at Convent of the Sacred Heart in San Francisco and remained for 27 years as an educator and an administrator. She spent three years at Sacred Heart Schools in Atherton, CA as assistant head of the high school. She returned to Broadway in 2012-13 as the interim head of Convent High School.

She served in the task force created by the RSCJ to promulgate the Goals and Criteria in Network Schools. Subsequently, Mary was a member and later chair of the Network Commission on Goals (now known as SHCOG). In this capacity, she visited nearly every school in the Network and assisted two schools in the journey to join the Network. She was also a member of the Board of Trustees at Forest Ridge and chaired its education committee.

More recently, she was Western Regional Director of AASH and served as President of the association from 2015-17. She has participated in the ASH Boards in Los Angeles and San Diego and was president of the latter from 2013-2015. She is a member of the Associates in San Diego and belonged to the Associates groups in San Francisco and Houston. In 2010, she chaired the RSCJ capital campaign in San Diego. She also served on the Development Board for the Society of the Sacred Heart.

Outside the Sacred Heart world, Mary was assistant head at Seton Catholic High School in Chandler Arizona and she taught at Mayfield Senior School in Pasadena, CA. She taught for more than a decade at the University of Phoenix San Diego and Southern California campuses. She was a docent at the Huntington Library touring students from inner city schools through the American collections.

Her husband of more than 50 years, Stuart, is a retired attorney. His mother was an alumna of Sacred Heart in St. Joseph Missouri. Daughter Erin is an alumna of Broadway.

Diane Remien Tymick
Lone Mountain, 1968

Although Diane's college, Lone Mountain, San Francisco, has been closed since the 1970's, she found a way to carry on her family's tradition of Sacred Heart education and embracing its values. Both her mother and grandmother were Sacred Heart alumni in Chicago. In fact, her mother wrote the words to Lake Forest's school song in the 1920's which was taken by the RSCJ to other schools when they were transferred.

Diane went on to earn an MBA in Finance from Loyola University of Chicago, after which she enjoyed a successful banking career with the First National Bank of Chicago, now J.P. Morgan Chase, where she sold Treasury Management products to Fortune 500 corporations. In 1989, she was named Salesperson of the Year.

After an early retirement, she connected with AASH, by attending its National Conference in San Francisco, in 2001, where she met Jeanne Burke O'Fallon. In 2005, she joined the planning committee for the AASH National Conference in Chicago and was hooked. Soon after, Jeanne approached her to join the National Board of Directors, initially serving as Corresponding Secretary, and later as Treasurer for three terms. Diane is currently filling in as Treasurer on the Board after a vacancy occurred. She has attended many national and regional conferences over the last twenty years.

Her volunteerism includes tutoring English as a Second Language (ESL), fundraising for her local hospital, parish, and the Chicago Abused Women's Coalition. She is currently on the Finance Committee of her Homeowner's Association.

In addition to serving her community, in 2018, Diane was asked to join the Board of Directors for Josephinum Academy of the Sacred Heart, in Chicago which educates underserved young women in its Wicker Park neighborhood. She mentors the girls on how to write a college essay and how to interview for college scholarships. At the "Jo", she is a member of the Finance Committee and has chaired and participated on numerous fundraising committees and galas, helping to raise millions of dollars in scholarships for the "Jo Girls." She has personally given her time, talents and treasure to these young women to ensure that they have the opportunity to live their lives with meaning and purpose, and to become tomorrow's leaders.

Finally, Diane is a member of the Cor Unum Legacy Society to ensure the secure retirement of the Religious of the Sacred Heart, paying forward the education and values which she, her mother and grandmother were so blessed to receive.

Newton CDS '71, Newton College '75

Rhonda Raffi Meegan has, for over 40 years, served in many capacities within the Sacred Heart community. After a successful career as an entrepreneur in the aerospace community (founded SatCon Technology, Inc.) she has devoted considerable time to philanthropy. Always guided by the tenets of the Sacred Heart values, she has worked on a broad array of activities at all levels within Sacred Heart organizations. Rhonda has served as a member of various Sacred Heart Boards (Newton CDS, Newton College, and Boston College for Newton College, AMASC). She, along with Nancy Brouillard McKenzie (NC'72), Lisa Kirby Greissing (NC'72), and Deborah Dunham, formed The Greater DC

Area Alumni Association. Additionally, she has held leadership positions on numerous secular and school boards (including Harvard/Radcliffe College). While living in MD, Rhonda was an active member of The Greater Washington DC Area Associates of the Sacred Heart. She has been an enthusiastic volunteer for a number of non-profit groups ranging from Jazz'd4Life (an international charity raising funds to start an orphanage, school, and hospital in Haiti), to local charities including working food drives for WC CARES food pantry. Her recent focus has been on cancer charities including chairing 'Play4Pink' golf tournaments and events for breast cancer awareness.

Among her recent efforts on the AASH Board, along with Provincial Head Suzanne Cooke, RSCJ, she formed a task force that will focus on strengthening liaisons with the RSCJs, the schools and the National Alumnae/i Association. As the USA-Canada Coordinator AMASC Board Director, she expanded the Sacred Heart international relationships. Her work specifically strengthened collaboration with AMASC Secretary Generale Marie-Pascal De Drouas , and, at her invitation, Rhonda attended the French National Alumni Conference (UFASC) in Paris. There she discussed with French National President, Laurence Galinowski, fostering stronger future connections with UFASC and AASH in order to support the future AASH Heritage Travel tours in France and the USA. Recently, with Past AASH President, and now new AMASC President, Roselie Posselius, together they successfully initiated an international project during the recent AMASC Congress in Naples, Italy to ensure the Sacred Heart legacy is not lost, but preserved to be shared with all alumni of the Sacred Heart. Rhonda treasures the educational gifts the RSCJs selflessly gave and continue to give to children of the Sacred Heart. Rhonda opines, "My faith is my true north."

Get Connected!

The connections we all made at our Sacred Heart school are priceless. We are also able to connect with alums from other Sacred Heart schools because of our common bond – we are all Children of the Sacred Heart. Please invite your former classmates and any Sacred Heart alums to contact the National Office at NationalOffice@aash.org so we can update our database with current email addresses. You can also connect with fellow alums through AASH Connections where you can advertise alum businesses, vacation homes, job and internship opportunities and prayer requests. Visit the website at www.AASH.org to get connected!

MARYLIZ DEVITO LINCOLN AWARD

*Alexandra Sanchez,
Academy of the Sacred Heart,
St. Charles. 2006
Villa Duchesne 2010*

MaryLiz de Vito Lincoln Generosity and Service Award

By Lisa Tebbe, ASH St. Charles, 1980

In Middle School, Alexandra Sanchez, St. Charles '06, Villa Duchesne, '10, started volunteering alongside her classmates with local nonprofits as part of the Academy of the Sacred Heart's Service Learning Program. Alexandra notes, "My parents would often volunteer with me, so between their example and the Academy, it instilled the importance of service to others (Goal 3, my favorite!). I also got to know my classmates better, creating friendships and building a sense of community."

Fast forward several years and Alexandra has remained active with her alma mater as a member of the Alumni Coordinating Council. She currently serves as president, and her leadership and volunteerism have been true gifts to the St. Charles community. From successfully launching the Alumni's Bloody Mary and Mimosa Bar to helping prepare a full Thanksgiving meal for Salvation Army Soup Kitchen clients as part of the Alumni Day of Service, Alexandra has been at the forefront of alumni activities. Through her steadfast, dependable, and organized approach she brings her love and loyalty to all things Sacred Heart.

After graduating from Villa Duchesne High School '10, Alexandra earned her bachelor's degree in elementary education from Loyola University Chicago and her master's in second language special education from Roosevelt University. She taught in Chicago Public Schools before returning to the St. Louis area where she currently teaches ESL at the elementary level. Alexandra finds time to attend school events at the Academy as a reminder that alumni are "always part of the heart." She is also a member of the newly formed St. Charles Associates.

Alexandra leads with a spirit of generosity and selflessness. Fostering relationships within the St. Charles Academy community and broader Sacred Heart Network are important to her and she has a gift for making everyone feel welcomed and loved much like this award's namesake, MaryLiz DeVito Lincoln. She feels deeply that it is important to give back to the school she loves so much. "Now, as an alum volunteering at the Academy, I am still forming new relationships and building a community with alums and all friends of the Academy. I will continue to volunteer here for the rest of my life and that makes me so happy!"

Past Recipients of the Maryliz de Vito Lincoln Generosity and Service Award:

2019 - Gabriella Almeida, Sacred Heart Greenwich 2007

2021 - Ani Haroian, ASH-St. Charles 2008

During the 2017-2019 Biennium, Deborah Dunham was appointed AASH Ambassador. This position was originally a temporary Presidential appointment for the purpose of assisting the AASH President, acting as a liaison for AMASC Hospitality Network, and representing AASH whenever possible.

AASH President Rhonda Meegan states, "We saw this original appointment worked extremely well and Deborah's success in the appointment fostered much communication with RSCJ communities, schools, and alumni associations for AASH."

Deborah has this reflection on her experience as AASH Ambassador, "I am excited to be the ambassador for AASH and paving the road for this position. Being there to assist in filling in gaps for the regional directors is one focus. Previously being the Southern Regional Director, I felt that the southern alum associations not connected with schools needed more of a connection to the AASH. So, I threw my golf clubs in my car and headed to Florida where there are five associations between Vero Beach and Miami with Naples on the West coast. This is my sixth year attending each of their luncheons and sharing National Association news with them. The Cuban SH Association always makes time for me at Casa Cuba restaurant! It is a wonderful journey and all Sacred Heart. I am blessed to have this opportunity."

Rhonda shares, "Deborah has not only supported the southern region, but has headed further west on numerous trips to visit the RSCJ in retirement communities, and north to Halifax to work with Sarah Cassidy in Halifax and Annie Wachter, RSCJ. Inspired by the success of the AASH Ambassador position, I have decided to add an additional appointment to test in Canada."

An AASH CASHA Ambassador 2023 appointment has been created as a temporary position without voting privileges. This appointment will not change CASHA's relationship with AMASC. Sarah Cassidy has accepted this appointment and is looking forward to working with us to foster further growth with US and Canada associations as the AASH CASHA Ambassador.

The AASH/CASHA Ambassador temporary appointment shall foster a closer union among AASH Associations and individual Sacred Heart alumnae/i from all parts of the world. She/he shall be Chair of the International Relations Committee for Canada. (Article VIII Section 1 and Section 4).

*AASH Ambassador
Deborah Newhouse Dunham
Grand Coteau 1962
DASH Houston 1970*

*Sarah Cassidy
Sacred Heart School of Halifax 1976*

Sarah Cassidy has accepted a Presidential appointment as Ambassador and non-voting member to the AASH Board of Directors. Sarah is the current President of the Canadian Association of the Sacred Heart (CASHA), and is a graduate of the Sacred Heart School of Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. She is well suited to serve as Ambassador for AMASC, AASH and CASHA members. "It is important for the US and Canada alumni to stay connected as the US-Canada Province of the RSCJ evolves and strengthens our mission," she said. She is inspired by Maureen Elliott, Canadian Cor Unum recipient, who was a liaison between Canada, the U.S. through AASH and globally with AMASC. Maureen was part of the Western chapter of CASHA and a mentor to Sarah.

Since graduating in 1976, Sarah has held many positions within CASHA. She was first the CASHA representative and then the CASHA President on the Sacred Heart School of Halifax (SHSH) Alumni Executive Board. She also served as Chair of the Planning Committee on the SHSH Board of Governors. Partnering with AASH and AMASC executive members, she works to build relationships and create stronger connections with alumni locally and internationally.

Sarah's belief in a Sacred Heart education began when her parents sent her and her two sisters to Sacred Heart School of Halifax. She in turn sent her two daughters and now her grandson has joined the family in Pre-Primary at SHSH. Her commitment to all things Sacred Heart is one of the most important parts of her life.

BOARD SLATE

Kate Devers Sawyer, President, Los Angeles, CA

Employed in the Finance Department of the Cheesecake Factory, Inc. for a quarter century, Kate Devers Sawyer, (91st Street 1986) travels extensively assuring compliance with corporate standards and data security protocols in CF restaurants. She has served on the AASH Board since 2015, first as Western Regional Director, for four years as Treasurer, and most recently as Vice President 2021 – 2023. Rhonda Raffi Meegan (Newton Country Day 1971/Newton College 1975), salutes her “extremely valuable expertise to each biennium.” Kate attended the 2012 Western Regional Conference, numerous National Conferences since 2013 as well as three AMASC Congresses in 2014, 2018 and 2022. She made critical contributions to the 2006 reactivation of the Los Angeles AASH and served as a Member of its Board until 2013. Living out Goal Three, Kate has served as a Big Sister with the Catholic Big Brothers and Sisters Community for more than a decade and she served for years as the ACS Relay for Life Team Captain. “I am glad to be a Sacred Heart girl because of the pride we have,” says Kate. “Our Sacred Heart education really sets us apart from the rest.”

Iris Guzman Kolaya, Vice President, Coral Gables, FL

Iris Guzman Kolaya (Carrollton 1996) and her two sisters are their family’s third generation of Sacred Heart women. Iris was first introduced to the inner workings of AASH in 2011 when she oversaw registration for that year’s National Conference held in Miami, FL. A journalist by trade, Iris currently works as a historical researcher and writer. She is a graduate of University of Miami’s School of Communications and is currently working towards a master’s degree in public history. She serves on the boards of the Dade Heritage Trust and History Miami. In 2021, Iris co-authored a book on El Jardin, the century-old estate on the shores of Miami’s Biscayne Bay--home to Carrollton School since 1961. The mother of two daughters (Alexandra ‘27 and Sienna ‘29), who currently attend Carrollton, Iris is immersed in Sacred Heart life. In her role as both a parent and alumna, she has held various positions over the years, including serving on the school’s Alumnae Council for more than a decade. “It would be hard to overstate the importance of my Sacred Heart education in my life,” explains Iris, “I’m excited that through AASH I can meet and connect with alumni from across the country, and work together to further our mission.”

Marcia Tufarolo, Treasurer, Seattle, WA

Marcia Tufarolo (Forest Ridge 1973) calls her 2021 – 2023 term as Western Regional Director, “a continued fun and rewarding experience. It has been so nice to build relationships with the members across the western region and to meet so many Sacred Heart alums.” Twice a member of the Forest Ridge Alumnae Board, Marcia became her Class Agent, and has been active in reunion coordination and fundraising. Marcia is serving on the AMASC Board of Directors for the 2022-2026 term in the role of Secretary General and looks forward to working with Sacred Heart alumni across the world. Marcia has been lauded as an outstanding mentor and tutor of enrollees in Year Up, an innovative program giving urban young adults increased opportunities to succeed in college and in real careers. She has worked with the St. Martin de Porres ministry in her parish and as a post hurricane Katrina volunteer in Biloxi Mississippi.

Lindsay Galloway Hill, Western Regional Director, Los Angeles, CA

A member of AASH-LA since 2006, Lindsay served on the AASH Los Angeles Chapter Board as a Member at Large (2016-2019) and just concluded service as President of the Los Angeles Chapter (2020-2022). She maintains, with six years as a full-time boarding student at Sacred Heart, Atherton and the University of San Diego, that "The Sisters and Staff taught the satisfaction found in rigorous intellectual pursuits and established a standard of excellence in the performance of tasks." She graduated Atherton Class of 1976, and went on for two more undergraduate years at the University San Diego. She obtained her Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies from California State University, Northridge and holds four teaching credentials, including a Bilingual Credential in Spanish and a Supplementary Authorization in English (6-9 th). Now retired from Burbank Unified School District (BUSD) following 35 years of service, she taught all grades Kindergarten to Fifth; additionally educating several student teachers along the way. She served on the Professional Advancement Committee, for BUSD, evaluating teacher training coursework and approving salary advancements. Presently, she supports teaching interns obtaining credentials, while providing guidance and feedback in curricular development and implementation. Being of service as the Western Regional Director and supporting the mission of this compelling, dynamic Alumni community will impel us all to greater action!

Andrea Briefs-Ferris, Central Regional Director, Bloomfield Hills, MI

Andrea says "the Sacred Heart formation and education was a privilege to both me and my three children". All four attended her alma mater, Bloomfield Hills. She is a member of the Class of 1975 and served multiple terms on the school's Alum Board including as its President. Andrea earned a Bachelor in the Science of Nursing from Georgetown University and a Masters Degree in Health Services Administration from the University of Michigan. She is an oncology nurse navigator working with breast cancer patients. As a Certified Nurse Breast Navigator, Andrea is called upon to make presentations in the community regarding navigating a cancer diagnosis, advancing awareness of the importance of Advance Care Planning and other health-related issues. Her service to AASH includes two terms as Central Regional Director, 2017-2019 and 2021 -2023. She also served on the National Conference Planning Committee for the AASH 43rd National Conference in Detroit.

Donna Davis, Southern Regional Director, Houston, TX

Donna began her journey with the Sacred Heart in 1971 as a student. She was the DASH Director of Public Relations and member of the alumni board for many years. Donna owned and operated her own business for over 15 years. In the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey in 2017, Donna organized "Hearts for Houston" assistance. This network of over 100 Sacred Heart students, parents and alums helped victims of the hurricane by providing funds, supplies and labor for their recovery. Since 2017, she has been a Director of The Ninfa Lorenzo Scholarship Fund(TNLSF) which provides funding to students with limited financial support, so they may attend a Catholic high school or college. Additionally, as the Vice President of TNLSF, she was solely responsible for the day to day operations and its charitable efforts. She proudly serves alongside 2 DASH alums of the class of 1971: Beth Lowry Speck and Phyllis Lorenzo Mandola.

BOARD SLATE

Suzanne Santora Robinson, Eastern Regional Director, Bryn Mawr, PA

Suzanne is a 1976 graduate of Overbrook and earned a BS from West Chester University PA. A Sacred Heart education is a family affair; her sister is an Overbrook graduate, her daughter and six nieces graduated from Bryn Mawr and another niece from Stuart. Suzanne served two terms on the SHA Bryn Mawr Alumnae Board, one as the president. She joined the faculty at Bryn Mawr in 2001 and was named the Middle School Director in 2006 before transitioning in 2018 to the role of Alumnae Relations Coordinator. Suzanne has been the schools Safety Coordinator for almost 20 years. Outside of Sacred Heart, Suzanne started a meal program and food pantry at her parish. She also served on the CYO Board, was the athletic director, started and coached the field hockey program and was the CYO liaison to the pastor. She has volunteered at numerous organizations in the Philadelphia area and currently serves as the secretary for the Nutritional Development Services Board of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Suzanne has attended two AASH conferences and looks forward to working with other Sacred Heart Network alumni as a member of the AASH Board.

Julia Sosnivka, Corresponding Secretary, Chicago, IL

Julia Sosnivka is a Program Officer at WorldChicago and joined the organization in 2020 after receiving her B.A. in Global and International Studies from Loyola University Chicago. She has participated in cultural exchange camps focused on citizen diplomacy through the Sacred Heart Network in Taiwan and France (2015 & 2016). She has volunteered at a local organization called the American-Ukrainian Youth Association where they work to educate the youth about Ukrainian history, culture, and language. She is also a member of the Kyiv Committee of the Chicago Sister Cities International, an organization that works to foster cooperation and understanding through citizen diplomacy between Chicago and Kyiv. As a Global Ties U.S. Emerging Leader and Rising Professional Member of the Public Diplomacy Council, Julia strives to engage her local communities in global affairs through citizen diplomacy and cross-cultural dialogue.

Allisen Willhoft, Recording Secretary, Birmingham, MI

Allisen Willhoft (Bloomfield Hills 2005) earned her Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Michigan Ross School of Business and works for Ally Financial as a manager in the CFO Group. She has been a member of the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae/Alumni Board since 2013. In addition to her work with Sacred Heart, Allisen is a member of Impact 100 Metro Detroit and has been a member of the Junior League of Birmingham, MI for over ten years, serving as President from 2021-2022.

Sacred Heart Legacy Society

AASH recognizes members of the AASH Legacy Society in the annual report published every September in the Esprit de Coeur magazine. With the member's permission, we will run a photo and brief bio in the Esprit and publicly thank them when the gift is first planned. In the following years, they will be noted in a special list of AASH Legacy Society members in the annual report. A complete profile/obituary along with photos will be run in the Esprit and posted on AASH's social media when we receive the gift. Legacy Society members should feel free to send high resolution photos they would like to be included in the magazine.

Did you know you can give money to AASH and lower your adjusted gross income (AGI) at the same time? Anyone aged 70½ or older who must take required minimum distributions (RMDs) from their traditional IRAs can contribute up to $100,000 directly to AASH without it being considered a taxable distribution. Contact your IRA administrator or the National Office (nationaloffice@aash.org) for more information.

*The following names were mistakenly omitted from the last edition of the Esprit de Coeur. We are grateful for our Cherub Donors who donated $100-$249 for the 2021 - 2022 fiscal year.*
